INTERIOR DESIGN BY ETHAN ALLEN

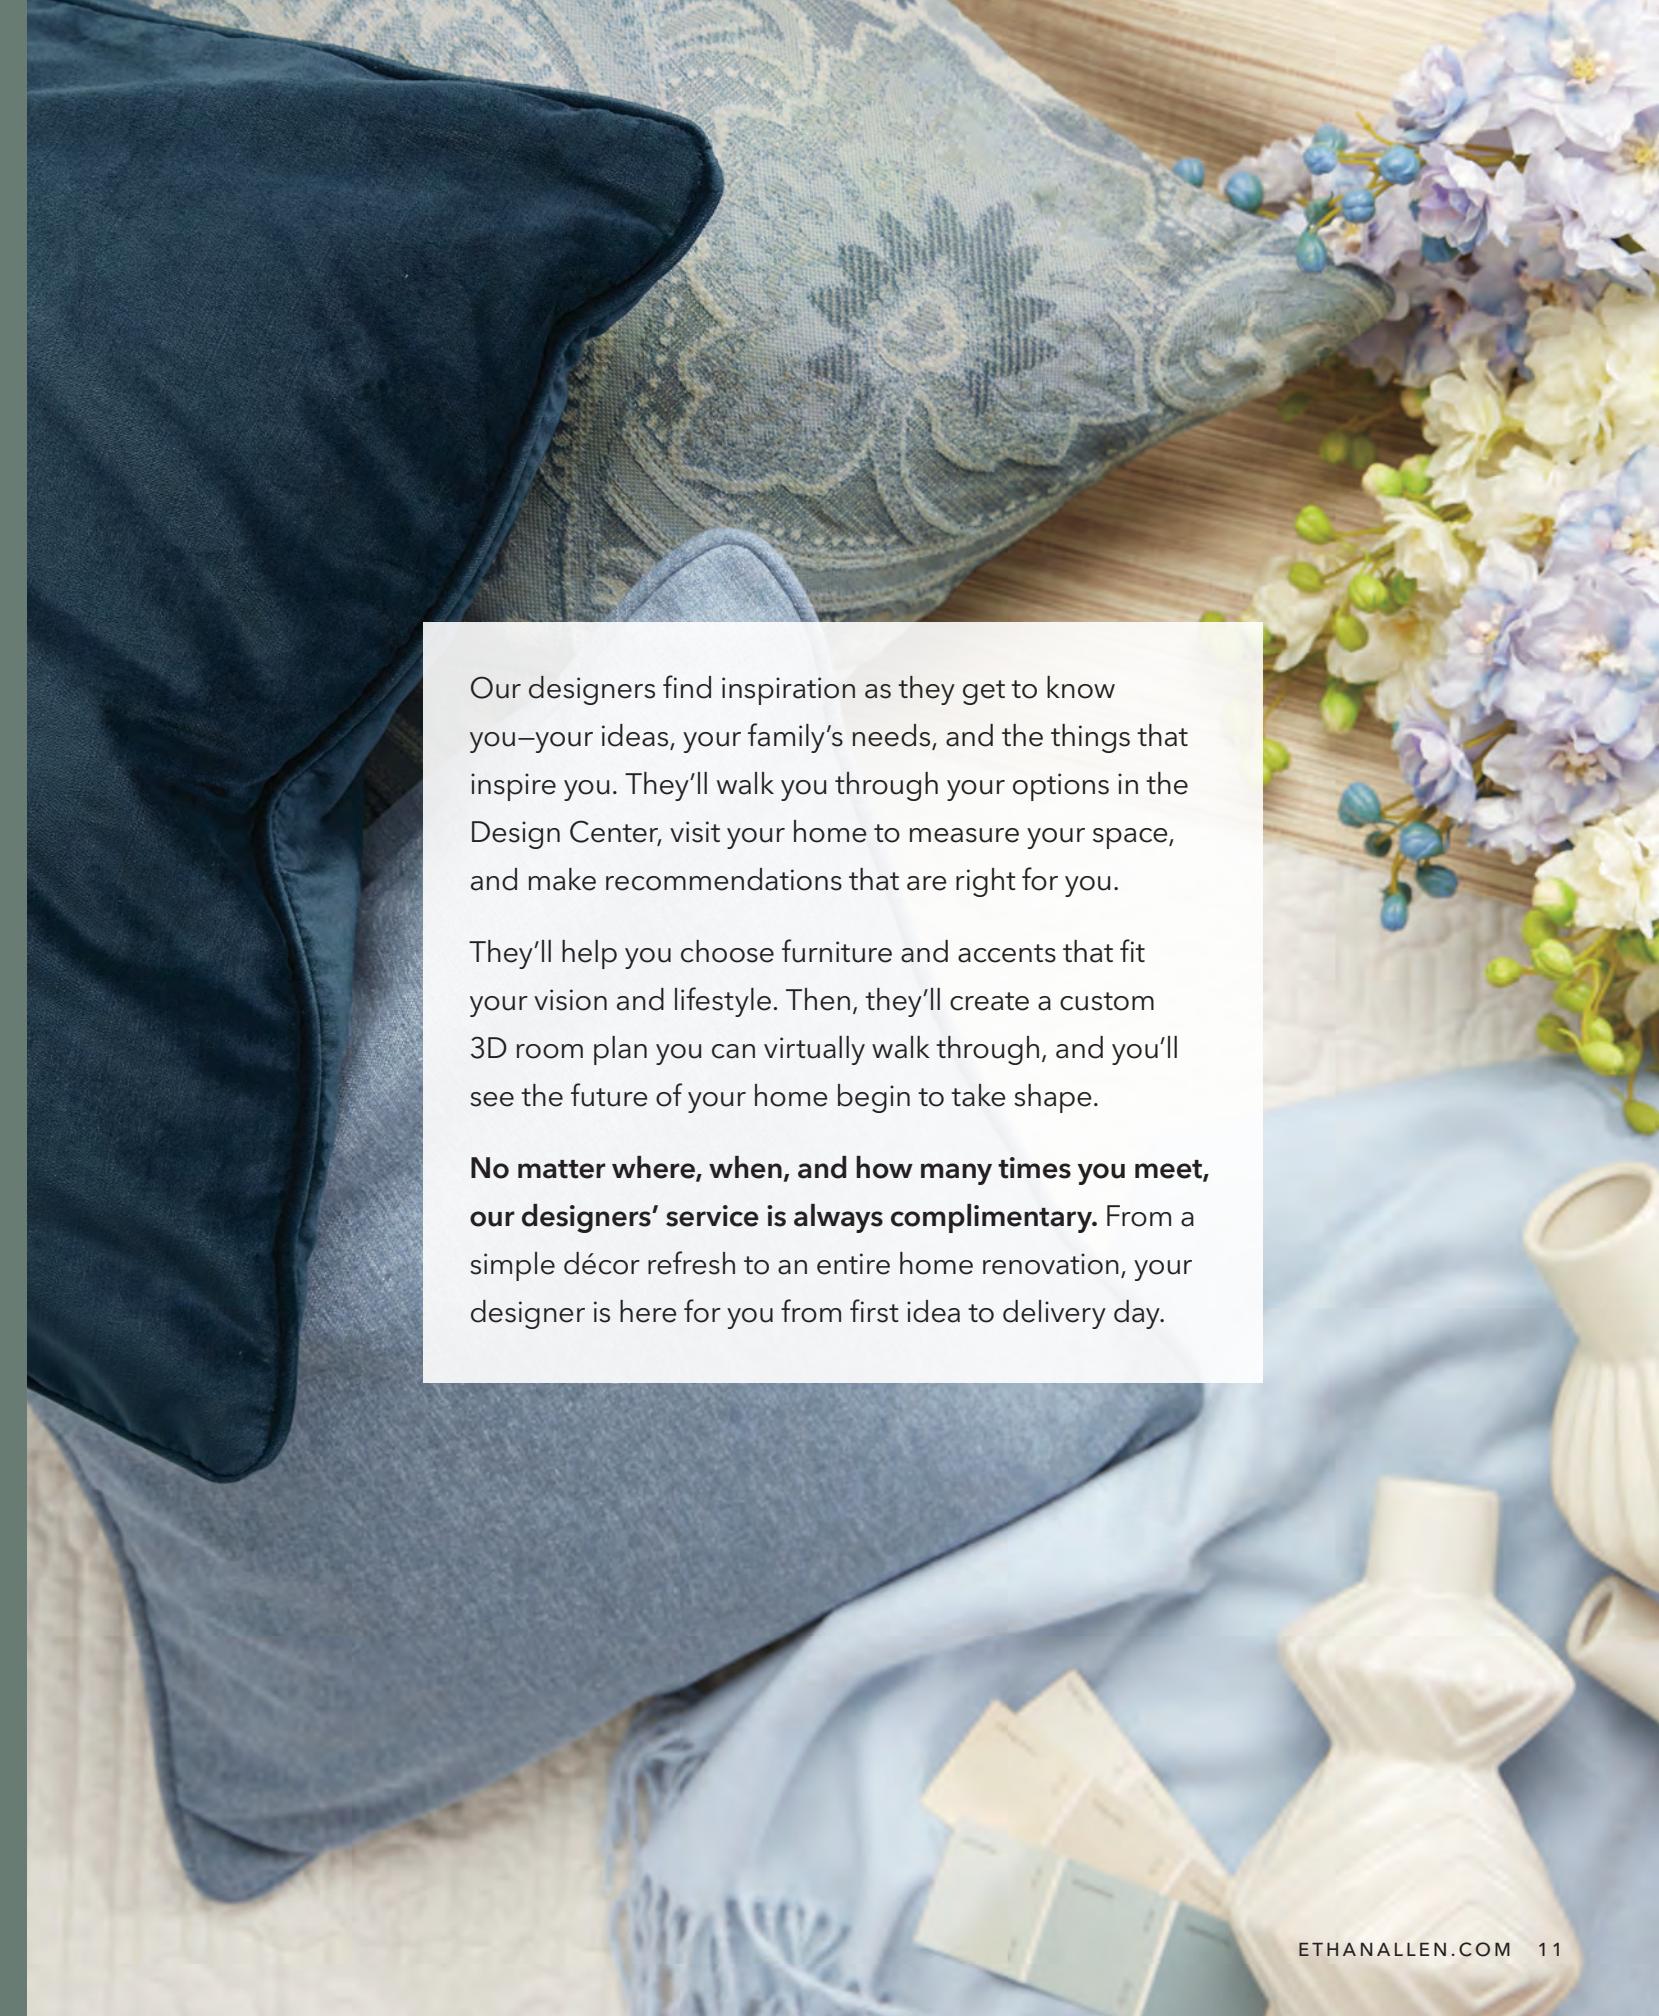

WORKING WITH AN INTERIOR DESIGNER IS FURNITURE BUYING AS IT SHOULD BE. IF YOU'RE READY FOR SOMETHING FRESH IN THE NEW YEAR, SCHEDULE A HOME CALL OR VISIT A DESIGN CENTER—EVERY MEETING WITH YOUR DESIGNER IS INCLUDED IN YOUR PROJECT.

Our designers find inspiration as they get to know you—your ideas, your family's needs, and the things that inspire you. They'll walk you through your options in the Design Center, visit your home to measure your space, and make recommendations that are right for you.

They'll help you choose furniture and accents that fit your vision and lifestyle. Then, they'll create a custom 3D room plan you can virtually walk through, and you'll see the future of your home begin to take shape.

No matter where, when, and how many times you meet, our designers' service is always complimentary. From a simple décor refresh to an entire home renovation, your designer is here for you from first idea to delivery day.

MODERN DESIGN

classic perspective

We believe in modern spaces where all elements—from furniture like our Spencer sectional to fabrics, finishes, and accents—contribute to a whole that's comfortable and livable.

DINING IN

Our Piermont dining table is a best seller for a reason: It works in so many rooms. Surrounded by our Danish modern Benham dining chairs, this table takes on a casual, welcoming vibe.

WINTER'S REST

Craft a bedding scene inspired by snowbanks and silvery lakes—then layer it all atop our European farmhouse-inspired Clayton bed, handcrafted in the finish of your choosing.

A MOMENT OF CALM

Our relaxation-ready Hendrik chaise features a curved silhouette made for reclining. Have it hand-tailored in your choice of fabric or leather, and with optional channel tufting.

DÉCOR REFRESH

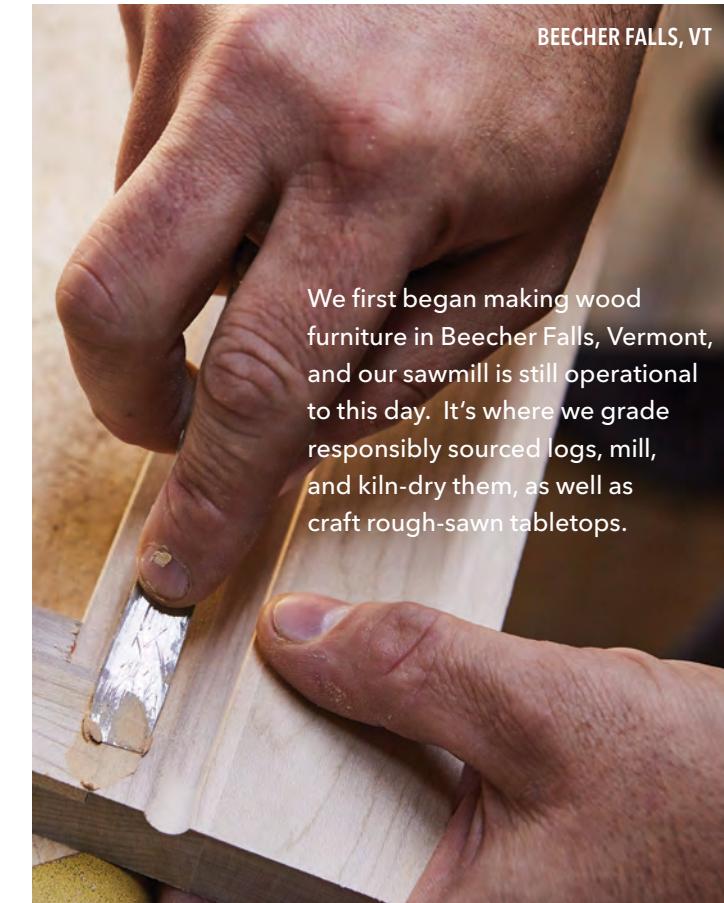

Kick off the new year by refreshing just one tabletop or corner, curating a vignette of wonders like artwork, mirrors, lighting, and much more.

BEECHER FALLS, VT

We first began making wood furniture in Beecher Falls, Vermont, and our sawmill is still operational to this day. It's where we grade responsibly sourced logs, mill, and kiln-dry them, as well as craft rough-sawn tabletops.

ORLEANS, VT

In Orleans, Vermont, we use the wood milled in Beecher Falls, precision-cutting some of our most popular pieces before assembling them and finishing them by hand.

MAIDEN, NC

SILAO, MEXICO

Our Silao, Mexico, workshop specializes in genuine leather upholstery, working with artisan-dyed hides and precision-cutting and color-blending each piece.

At our wood furniture workshop in Honduras, we craft a wide range of furniture, specializing in pieces that require detailed wood carving.

CHOLOMA, HONDURAS

classic home, meet OUR MODERN POINT OF VIEW

When recent clients were drawn to modern silhouettes while sofa shopping with designer Kayla McCullough, an idea for a modern design began to take shape in her mind.

But when she visited the home, she found classic-leaning architecture—a design dilemma that she knew how to solve.

Kayla McCullough
Phoenix, AZ
EA Spirit Award winner:
Best Use of Accents

In the classic rotunda (shown to the left), Kayla started by creating an impactful library space that accentuated the round shape of the room. She selected a teal Channing sofa and accents in glam materials like mother of pearl. The curved back of the Channing sofa with acrylic legs added a modern element, while the accent pieces had a classic twist.

The highlight of this Spirit Award-winning room fully embraces its architecture: Kayla chose eighteen Ethan Allen mirrors, including several custom options, to play into the 13-foot ceilings while reflecting natural light—all to dazzling effect.

"Natural light plays a huge role in design and when you have a well-lit space, you must appreciate it," Kayla notes. "Throughout the day, the sunlight reflects off the mirrors, creating a space that lures you in."

"I fell in love with the silver leaf applique within the dining room's focal tray ceiling,"

Kayla says—and no wonder, since she describes herself as a maximalist! She kept this and other original lighting fixtures throughout the home. "I wanted that ceiling to remain the essence of the room, allowing the furniture to complement it."

When she presents her designs, Kayla likes to invite potential clients out of their comfort zones. Though she has her own sense of style, she avoids the confines of any one sensibility. "I have a profound appreciation for all aesthetics," she says. "That is where the beauty of design unfolds."

Ethan Allen designers like Kayla look and listen, both to your wants and needs, and to your home's unique story. Unlock your home's potential—make a complimentary appointment with an Ethan Allen designer to get started.
